A LITTLE GIRL KILLED BY THE TROLLEY.

THE CHILD IS RUN OVER ON HER WAY TO SCHOOL BY A RAPIDLY MOVING CAR.

Another fatal trolley accident occurred in West Orange yesterday morning, the victim being a little eight-year-old schoolgirl. The accident occurred at 8:30 o'clock in front of St. Mark's School, in Valley Road. Little Anna Hullum, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hullum, of Beaver-st., was on her way to school. A northbound car of the Orange and Newark Line had just passed when the child started across the street to the school. She ran in front of electric car No. 86, guided by George Holt. All accounts agree that the car was running at a frightfully high rate of speed, some saying that it was going twenty miles an hour. The car struck the little girl squarely, knocking her to one side. She fell with her leg on the rail, and the wheel passed over her right leg, crushing it from the ankle to above the knee. Her head was badly cut and bruised by the guard rail of the car. She was quickly picked up and taken into an adjoining building, where she died. Her body was sent to the Memorial Hospital. It was evident to the surgeons there that there was no hope, and the child died at 10 o'clock.

BAPTISTS LOSING GROUND IN NEW-YORK.

The last of the meetings in connection with the twenty-third anniversary of the Southern New-York Baptist Association was held yesterday in the West Thirty-third Street Baptist Church. The session was largely attended, and the discussion of the condition of the Baptist churches in this city, the Rev. Dr. William C. Bitting, pastor of Mount Morris Baptist Church, read a paper in which he declared that the Baptists in New-York were losing ground, both in numbers and in financial stability. In preparing his paper he had sent out a circular with many questions bearing on the condition of all the Baptist churches in the city, forty-four in all, and had received replies from nearly all the pastors. Statistics showed that the inquiries were summed up in Dr. Bitting's favor. A discussion of the paper followed. The following were elected officers of the New-York Baptist Association: President, the Rev. Dr. Frank R. Morse, associate pastor of Calvary Baptist Church; vice-president: Franklin T. Smith, deacon George Hillman; secretary: Frank J. Drewry, treasurer; Joseph Prokow, Frank Dickerson and L. T. Risque were elected trustees.

These meetings were begun Tuesday, and were continued Wednesday and Thursday.
